

1. Judging is to be held at Momma's at Sengelmann, across North Main Street from the cooking area.
2. The competition uses a blind judging system based on a duplicate numbered ticket.
  - a. One half of the duplicate ticket will be secured by tape to the top of the turn-in container.
  - b. The second ticket will need to be torn off and kept by the contestants.
  - c. Winners of the contests for pickles, sauerkraut, and wine will be announced at 2:15; Winners of all the sausage-related contests will be announced at 7:00 pm., and claimed with the duplicate ticket.
3. Any container that appears to have been deliberately marked or altered will be referred to the Sausagefest committee who will rule on disqualification. No garnishments are allowed to be put in the container.
4. All entries will be scored on a scale of 1 to 10 with 10 being the best.
5. The Sausagefest Committee may disqualify any entry deemed inedible or unsafe to eat. All meat processed on site must be kept on ice and in sanitary containers. Processing equipment must be kept clean.
6. No electricity or water will be provided.
7. No glass containers will be allowed on the festival grounds. No cook-off team may give away alcohol.
