Vendor Rules and Fees

Registration will be located at the corner of Wolters Avenue and North Main Street.

The event will be held on North Main Street in downtown Schulenburg. All activities will take place outdoors. Booth size is 10' x 10'. Dealers are responsible for bringing tables, chairs, tents and any other equipment needed to present their booth in an appropriate manner. Dealers and individuals are responsible for their own equipment.

This show takes place on a street, so please plan your set up accordingly.

Application deadline is Friday, April 3rd. Booths are $50.00, or $80.00 for 2 booths if paid before the April 3rd deadline. After the deadline, booths will cost $55.00 each.

The Sausagefest Committee must approve of any items that you sell. Items that are in direct competition with our non-profits (food or drink) will not be allowed.

Any children's toys MUST be completely pre-approved. Absolutely no Silly String, guns or toy shooting items that discharge objects will be permitted. The Sausagefest Committee reserves the right to ask you to leave if you violate any of the above rules.

No electricity will be provided.

Set-up begins at 7:00am, and all vehicles must be off the street by 9:30am. The festival begins at 11:00am, however, you may begin selling items earlier. Vehicles will be allowed back on the road starting at 7:30pm for you to load up your booth. Please unload your vehicle and park it, then return to your booth for set up.
